We are now prepared to furnish Job Work on Beautiful Colored Paper of all shades, and can furnish at short notice—Handbills, Posters, Circulars and Cards either in white or any desired color, equal in beauty, finish, taste or display to the work of any office in the country.
This class of work must in all cases be settled for on delivery, except when we contract with merchants to receive payment in goods.

Rev. E. H. Ingle, of Big Lick, will (D. v.) hold service in Emanuel church, Goodson, on Sunday, the 27th inst.

Cattle.—Texas cattle are being transported over the Va. and Tenn. railroads in considerable numbers this week.
Look out for the cattle plague.

Southern Planter and Farmer.—The September number of the Southern Planter and Farmer is an improvement on itself. It is published by C. B.
Williams, Richmond, at $2 per annum.

Fowler's Speech.—We are in possession of the speech of Senator Fowler, in which he pays marked attention to the beauties of Beas Butler's character as developed in the impeachment case. It does the subject justice.

Great Circus.—Robinson's great Circus is said to be coming this way. We suppose it will reach here by the 10th of October, and we will vouch for our people being ready for one against that time.

Rev. G. A. Caldwell is now on a tour for the purpose of raising means for the establishment of King's College in this place. An elegant gentleman, a popular minister, a worthy cause.
Success to him, say our people.

Prosperity of Bristol.—We are glad to announce the continued growth and improvement of Bristol. Quite a number of dwellings are now going up.
Indeed, there has been no time since the close of the war when the saw and the hammer have not been heard on new buildings in our midst.

Italian Bees.—Mr. Wm. Devault has shown us a box of his celebrated Italian bees. They are in appearance quite distinct from the ordinary bees of this country, and are said to be much superior in value.

New Shop.—The Va. & Tenn. Railroad Company have recently erected a smith shop in our town. Heretofore if a car or engine needed small repairs it had to be taken to Lynchburg. Now, there is at least the small amount of $50 per month expended in Bristol for this purpose, and a large degree of expense saved to the road. It is under the charge of Mr. Henry Sison.

Jefferson's Will.—We learn that our friends at Tazewell Court-House have gone to work at improving the place.
Many of the buildings are being repaired and repaired, and their town is once more beginning to wear its wanted neat and prosperous appearance. A more brave, generous and hospitable people do not live, and there are probably few finer counties in the Commonwealth.

Important Notice.—The stockholders of the E. T. & Va. R. R. Co. are notified that the next annual meeting to elect a board of directors for the ensuing year will be held in Knoxville on the 26th day of November next. All stock in the road unpaid after that time will be forfeited. See advertisement of the company.

Democrat's Young America is again before us, and intended for the young.
It is entirely a new thing—original—and by its beauty and attraction is calculated to make it rank with Peter Parley. Published monthly.

Democrat for October is already on our table. It is up to time always, and up to the standard of excellence. The present number is really a treasure, and we consider Democrat as the finest monthly for ladies now published in America.

Croquet.—This new and elegant game has been introduced in our town, and is regarded as one of the finest of all amusements for young ladies and gentlemen. A nice set of Croquet would adorn every home. Our friend, W. D.
Jones, has a set for sale cheap. Call on him, and leave quickly, or he will sell you something else.

Thanks.—Dr. Geo. H. Morton will accept our thanks for tickets to the Tournament and Ball in Knoxville on the 29th inst.

Bristol Delegation.—The delegates to the Convention held in Bristol on the 15th July last, and every citizen who feels interested in promoting its object, are requested to meet promptly at the Nickels House on Saturday, at 2 P. M.
Important action will be taken, and those who are to go to the adjourned meeting at Norfolk will be designated and tickets applied for accordingly. This notice is given on the authority of Mr.
J. F. Johnson, President of the Bristol delegation.

Exchanges.—We welcome to our exchange list the Petersburg Index and the Native Virginian, both first class papers. The Daily Index is furnished at $5, and the Weekly at $2. The Virginian is edited by Dr. Bagby, at Orange Court-House, and issued weekly; price $2.

Coach and Saddlery Hardware.— We call attention to the card of Mackenzie Brothers, in another column.
This is one of the finest and largest establishments of the kind in the North.
They have been tried by some of our citizens, and have given satisfaction both in price and in the fine style of their goods. They are prompt and accommodating. We hope our merchants will patronize them.

John W. Rogan, lately of Bristol, is now with Messrs. Hodges Brothers, Baltimore. This establishment is about the largest in the city, and has a reputation unsurpassed by any other. Mr.
Rogan is well known here, and has gone there to serve the interests of his friends.
Try him.

Important to Shippers.—We invite attention to the card of Messrs. Charles Reid & Son, Norfolk and New York.
This is an established house of fine character, and parties shipping to them have choice of markets, Norfolk or New York. Anything shipped to either address will have the benefit of both markets. We hope our merchants will try them.

Public Speaking.—Gov. McMullen addressed the people of Scott at Osborn's Ford, on Friday, the 11th inst. His speech, which occupied three hours in the delivery, covered the whole ground, and was a masterly effort, resulting in the conversion of a good many Radicals to the faith of Democracy. There were about 300 persons present, and we understand one fruit of the Governor's effort was the reclaiming of a former editor of the Bristol News, who, after severing his connection therewith in 1867, embraced the strange heresy of Radicalism, to the surprise of his many friends. We trust there is good ground for the hope that he is saved, and we, who have not yet been tempted by that serpent hatched upon the rocks of Massachusetts, say unto him, "Go and sin no more." We would throw around him the generous mantle of Seymour Democracy and sing the song of our gladness that so valuable an acquisition is granted our enemies no longer. The Governor spoke next day at Rocky Point with telling effect.

Dried Fruit.—Messrs. O. R. Baker & Co., of New York and Cincinnati, a strong and well established house, invite attention to their card in another column. Their agent, Mr. Edward L.
Kelly, is now in our town soliciting consignments of produce generally and of dried fruit particularly, for the New York branch of this house. To converse with him is to be convinced of his worth as a business gentleman, and we wish him success.

Preserving Fluid.—Mr. J. A. Buckner has now for sale a lot of this useful article in pint bottles. The only objection to it is, that it does away with the necessity of airtight fruit cans, and thus puts an end almost to that branch of trade. A number of the ladies of our town have tried it, and speak of it in very high terms. The fruit is put up in jars or crocks of any kind, and a little of the fluid added, a slip of paper on top and a string to tie, and the process is ended. Full directions accompany each bottle. It is said to keep cider very finely. Give Buckner a call.

Judge Howard's Court.—Judge Howard is now holding his Criminal Court at Blountville. His charge to the Grand Jury is said to have been a very strict and impartial one. The deputy sheriff, Mr. Churchwell, was bringing from the jail at Jonesboro a prisoner charged with stealing a horse from Ellis Millard. Getting off the train at Union, he placed the prisoner on a mule and took a seat on the same behind him. They then rode ahead in the direction of Blountville, leaving behind them two men on foot in charge of another prisoner, charged with a similar offence. The latter reached Blountville with his prisoner, and found Churchwell had not arrived. When the affair was investigated, it was found that Churchwell and his prisoner had parted on the way, leaving the former to care to town the news that the latter had been to parts unknown, taking with him the mule and also the saddle-bags containing Churchwell's papers. We understand his honor was a good deal annoyed by this denouement, and avowed his purpose to saddle the entire cost of the matter, if he could, on the party to blame. His charge was particularly heavy with regard to carrying concealed weapons. It is expected a great many indictments will be made against persons for this serious breach of the law.

Esq. J. S. Shangle, we understand, gave the legal bond as a Justice of the Peace, Esq. Mullinix becoming his security.

Col. Geo. E. Grisham, Clerk of the House at Nashville will accept of our thanks for a copy of the Report of the Joint Military Committee of the two Houses in relation to the Organization of the Militia. It consistently abstains from exposing the many outrages on the part of the Radicals, but exhibits an unusual degree of industry and invention with regard to what its authors call the Koklux Klan murders.
